Welcome to Wilkins, Crews & Associates, P.C.,

Chattanooga's premier relationship-based accounting firm. We pride ourselves in forming strong relationships with our clients and in providing the highest quality of service to meet their needs.

In today's financial climate, tax codes continually change, making tax planning and preparation require extra care. In times like these, clients need to know that there's a team looking after their interests that is well prepared to address the challenges they face.

That team is Wilkins, Crews & Associates. We provide services you can depend on and are always accessible to answer your questions. But more than that, we get to know you or your company in order to better understand your current situation and to anticipate future opportunities and challenges...before they occur.

Our team becomes an extension of yours. And if we do our job well, we earn your trust and grow our own credibility. Our reputation has been built over many years. We not only know what works. We know what works well.

We hope you'll give us the opportunity to put our experience to work for you.

George P. Crews

HOW WE WORK

Every client of our firm deserves a special team of professionals dedicated to meeting their needs. We excel in traditional practices and form an engagement team possessing the appropriate expertise to best meet your needs, goals and deadlines.

This strategy is proven. It works for tax, accounting and consultation services whether for corporations, partnerships, limited liability companies, estates and trusts or individuals.

We'd enjoy putting it to work for you.

The following is a partial listing of the many services we have to offer:

- Accounting Procedures and Controls
- Accounting and Payroll Processing
- Audits, Reviews and Compilations
- Budgeting
- Business Plans
- Business Acquisitions and Sales
